O'Brien Is Confident.

O'Brien is Confident.

The battle between Kaufmann and O'Brien will be a twenty-round affeir, and will be brought off in the ring at Woodward's Pavilion, in San Francisco, under the auspices of the San Francisco, under the auspices of the San Francisco A. C., while the go between Corbett and Tipman is scheduled for fifteen rounds, and will be decided nefore the Eureka A. C., of Battinore. Although O'Brien will be kiving away considerable weight to Kaufmann, he is confident he will have no trouble in outpointing Billy Delaney's new champion and securing the decision. Corbett is sure he will bent Tipman, and expects to put his man out.

Johnson's Opinion of Kaufmann. Big Jack Johnson, the co ored heavy-weight, who is unable to get on a match with any when asked a few days ago in Chicago a when asked a rew cays ago in a chacago to who he thought would win the battle between Kaufmann and O'Brien, said; "I have seen Kaufmann fight, and if O'Brien does not stop him before the end of the twentieth round I will admit that I don't know anything about a fighter. Kaufmann cannot fight."

Ward and Briggs Matched. Mike Ward, the Western light-weight who bett, but falled on account of the weight question, has been matched to meet Jimmy Briggs, the New England boxer, in a fifteen-round bout, before the Douglas A. C., of Caelsea, Mass., on Nov. 7. Ward is one of those rugged fighters who can wallop with both hands.
